Intergroup Meeting Minutes April 4, 2018

Meeting Opened at 7pm

Board Members Present: Dennis H., Dan C., Tom F., George D., Elizabeth E., Carolyn V.

12 Traditions: Read by Joseph G.

New Intergroup Reps: Yoshi L. (Sober Sisters), Pam D. (Came to Believe)

Secretary's Report: Read by Elizabeth E.

Motion to Accept: Diane L. (w/ correction); Second by John B.

Treasurer's Report: Read by Dan C.

Motion to Accept: Ernestine; Second by Bill R.

Public Information: N/A

Hospitals & Institutions: Given by Ernestine. We need more people for panels.

Cedar House, for example. No minimum requirement for sobriety. For Institutions, a sobriety minimum is needed and an application turned in for approval. For more information call Tom F.

Office Report: Given by Carolyn V. The office is running great after, hopefully fixing the computer "network" problem. New drums for the printer were installed.

*District 25 (Spanish-speaking) got in touch with me. Some of their information will be in the newsletter and available at Central Office.

12 Step Call List: Given by Amy J. She has distributed an itemized list requesting Volunteers (for different areas, gender, time slots available etc.) that want to be on the call list. Some discussion followed regarding meetings that are "dark" but are still in the Directory. Notes were taken for at least one meeting to be removed.

Alanon: Given by Beth. Offered a few flyers- "This is Alanon" and for upcoming events. (Some include AA speakers)

General Service Committee: Liaison/ Diane L. Mentioned a few topics that will be Discussed at upcoming Conference. Interesting Fact: The "Preamble" from The Big Book has been recognized by the Library of Congress.

OLD Business: none

NEW Business: Nominations for new Board member ("Member at Large" unexpectedly left position open)

Nominations: John B. & Ernestine (possibly)... The secretary apologizes that she did not get the names of people who made the nominations.

Yoshi L. Brought up the topic of meeting translators for the Deaf. Carolyn V. Answered with information about CODA- sometimes they can provide translation for the deaf/hearing impaired.

Picnic Committee: Diane L. Reiterated that this is the only fund-raising event for Central Office and has been going on for many years. Though the park has been booked, there are many slots to fill for different functions necessary for the day of the picnic. She was a very concerned that at the last committee meeting she was the ONLY person to show up and brought it to Intergroup for assistance.

Tradition 4: Read by Linda & Ernestine

Next month for Tradition 5- John B. volunteered.

Neglect, the Elephant in the Room

Continuous Credibility leads to Integrity

By Rick R.

When we are satisfied that we have given steps one through five our best effort and have identified the most glaring defects of character and shortcomings, it's now time to affect the changes in the most obvious of our faulty thoughts and the behaviors that stem from those thoughts by addressing them in steps six and seven. To be successful in this endeavor, we must first get honest with ourselves and begin to establish some credibility and by that I mean always doing the things we say we are going to do. We bring most of the basic flaws out in the open as we become aware of them. Then, if we are sure that we are committed to the program, we will want to set, in place, principles to live by that cut off our own escape when we stumble and want to revert back to that old way of thinking. Most of us do this with the help of a sponsor or a mentor, if you like, and go by the book as best we can. I did, what I thought was a pretty thorough job of it, then one day, about twenty years ago, I was trying to park my car in a somewhat crowded parking lot and as I found the spot I wanted there was a shopping cart blocking my way. I got out of my car and moved the cart aside, then parked my car. I then got that shopping cart and pushed it back to the store entrance, then went about my business. From that day on, when parking at any market, I search for a stray shopping cart and take it back to the store just to make up for all the times I shoved one into the flower bed and drove away. After telling that story at meetings over the years, I hear people telling how it is very uncomfortable for them to leave the cart adrift in the parking lot, and we all get a big laugh out of it. As best I can tell, the word neglect is only mentioned two times in the Big Book (pg 97 and pg 129) and two times in the 12&12. (pg 81 and pg 151) And seldom, if ever, has it been the topic of a meeting that I can recall. It is like the proverbial, elephant in the room. As I started to catch myself shirking my responsibilities it became obvious to me that if I wanted to regain some form of self respect and dignity, I was going to have to put the word Neglect on my list of shortcomings, and question my integrity. Do I do what is right even when there's no one watching? If credibility is, always doing what I say I'm going to do, then Integrity, to me, is a whole bunch of credibility. To cut off my own escape I do routine things every day, that cost me nothing and the result of that is a clear conscience. If I am doing the little things that I should, I find it much easier to give the big things that same sort of attention. I never throw trash out of the car window, I pick up after myself, I never walk away from my bed in the morning without making it, and I liken that to being an unspoken prayer saying, I will be responsible, I will be orderly, I will be neat, and I will not be neglectful, I will be respectful, I will stay on the unselfish side of the ledger in all of my decisions, I sometimes revisit those pages in the Big Book and the 12&12 and I try my best not ignore the elephant in the room.
