MY EGO CAN WHIP YOUR EGO

LET YOUR CONSCIENCE BE YOUR GUIDE

I've haven't had too many problems with places or things. My problems have always been with the people in those places and the ones that owned those things. It's always been THOSE OTHER PEOPLE. When I first entered AA, I learned that one of the symptoms of alcoholism was our inability to form a true partnership with another human being. I could be your partner as long as you were willing to see it my way. Most of the people I knew got tired of me and pulled away. I had to explain why they deserted me, so I went about pointing out all of their faults while rationalizing (making a socially acceptable excuse for a socially unacceptable behavior) my own behavior. I never felt good about myself after behaving that way, but I couldn't face the idea of admitting that I was the problem.

One evening, I was talking to a friend of mine about this topic and he said: "all forms of criticism and character assignation stem from low self esteem". I heard another person say "there are two ways to get the tallest building in town, 1. Build the tallest building or 2. Tear all the other buildings down". The low self esteem comment stopped me in my tracks. I knew I had to restrain my tongue if I was ever going to overcome the insecurity inside of me. I was going to have to rely on my own merits if I was ever going to have a healthy self image.

All people are conditioned to protect themselves and often they overreact and do and say things that cause others to react in kind. This can do damage to any relationship, and sometimes can destroy a friendship. I am in the program of Alcoholics Anonymous to heal myself so it's my responsibility to cut off my own escape and take the initiative to deal with my side of the action whether the other person cooperates or not. If I want to--- have the best possible relationship with every human being I know--- (12x12 steps 8) it's up to me and I had to stop judging people by their surface behavior, look deeper and try to understand how they are conditioned to behave the way they do. This gives me the strength to be empathetic and not aggravate the situation. We all make mistakes and today I don't let my EGO compound the problem. When I let myself get into a confrontation with another person who has problems like I do, all I am saying is, "I'LL BET MY EGO CAN WHIP YOUR EGO".

It's a long and slow process, and it requires constant attention on my part. I try to give everyone amnesty. I apply the golden rule in every situation. I use the ST. Francis prayer for inspiration. I refuse to pile on when another person is a little off his/her game. If I find that that person is still willing to cross my boundaries and cause me grief, I can remove myself and detach without condemning the other person as I withdraw. I don't discuss his faults to others when he's not present. (No gossip) And most of all, I must be satisfied with delayed gratification. It may take years before anyone appreciates the changes that I have made, and when they do, it makes it even more gratifying. Today I am nobody's adversary; I nobody's victim; and I am nobody's perpetrator. I know that my ego doesn't like the way I live today, but my conscience gets the final say.

Public Information (PI) Report: John L.

We still need more volunteers to distribute pamphlets and directories.

The details are being worked out for a spot on KCAA radio (AM Show).

Not too many events are planned due to summer break.

The new "Young People's" area is starting to take off. Amy & Al are volunteering and going to more high schools.

Contact John L. 909.648.2984

Hospitals and Institutions (H&I) Report: Given by Tom F.

Reminder that meetings are held every 3rd Sunday at 3pm at the Unity Club, Redlands.

There are many panels but not many people serving on them.

*Also, there is some discussion going on about possibly having an "H&I" School- so that people may learn about the different panels, institutions and the process by which to be of service on them.

12 Step Committee Report: Carolyn V. (For Lisa)

Everything is going Awesome!

Every call has been picked-up for the last three months.

Amy has completely caught on the call list.

Dave L. Volunteered to keep a list of "dark" meetings that he comes across. He will then give info. To Central Office so that the "dark" meetings can be verified before removing from the directory.

Office Manger's Report: Carolyn V.

The office is down by $5000 in donations (next month). This is the first time that we have shown an actual loss in 10 years. Requesting that Intergroup Reps. Take this info back to their groups to get the word out. Support is greatly needed. Julia L. Suggested maybe a separate "bucket" for contributions or maybe suggested percentages be reiterated at meetings.

Alanon Report: Beth/ Alanon Liaison- We have had the same issue of low participation on our Service Boards as well.

Old Business: None

New Business: Some Discussion about ideas for more fundraisers for Central Office (The yearly Picnic would still be the main fundraiser)

Tradition 7 to be read by: Tim D.
