Step

Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these Steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

Tradition

Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

Concept

The Conference shall observe the spirit of A.A. tradition, taking care that it never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds and reserve be its prudent financial principle; that it place none of its members in a position of unqualified authority over others; that it reach all important decisions by discussion, vote, and whenever possible, substantial unanimity; that its actions never be personal, punitive nor an incitement to public controversy; that it never perform acts of government; that, like the Society it serves, it will always remain democratic in thought and action.

A Life of Joy and Happiness

Joy and Sadness are but Bumps and Dips

By Rick R

Understanding is the key to right principles and attitudes, and right action is the key to good living; therefore the joy of good living is the theme of A.A.'s Twelfth Step. (12 X 12 pg. 125) How appropriate it seems that there are twelve months in a year and we have twelve steps in the program. The joy of good living is the theme and it blends right in with Thanksgiving in November, the religious holidays in December, and is topped off with the New Year's Eve celebration. This time of year does bring a lot of joy to most of us, but it also brings sadness and distress to some of the less fortunate ones who haven't yet been blessed with the gift of sobriety and peace of mind, in and outside of the A.A. program. I used to be very uncomfortable about the holidays as I never knew how to act around normal people. I felt like a charity case and never got into the spirit of reaching out to others. My family always celebrated Christmas, and I would always (due to My discomfort) put a damper on it by complaining about the tacky gifts that people would buy for each other and the mad rush to go shopping and all the commercializing it had become. I explained this to a dear friend once, and he asked, "Does the rest of the family enjoy it?" I said yes. He then said, "why don't you just take a back seat and watch the joy in their eyes as they experience these things?" I did that exact thing and have been doing it ever since and it has changed my appreciation of this time of year. This change of attitude has inspired me to apply the unselfish lessons that I've come to understand, and I spend the holiday season looking for the opportunity to brighten the lives of those less fortunate than myself. I often do these things anonymously and without fanfare. I also consider how I used to feel when I was the one on the receiving end of a charitable gesture and am very careful to do these things in a way that preserves the dignity of the other person. I don't have to wait for the holidays to do these things. Every day is Christmas at my home. More recently I started to contemplate the difference between Joy and Happiness, as I always thought that they were synonymous and they are, in some respects, but they do have some different qualities. I am a relatively happy person as the result of being very diligent when it comes to working the steps of the program and practicing the principles in all of my affairs. I am not without the little inconveniences and irritations that come with my day-to-day living activities, but they are nowhere near the problems I encountered prior to becoming a member of Alcoholics Anonymous. These do not lower my level of happiness because I simply take them as they come. Over a period of time, as I mature in this journey, my mean level of happiness continues to rise and I am generally very happy as the result. When I look at the words Joy and Sadness, I do not feel that I am in a constant state of Joy or sadness but I do have many little bumps and dips that happen on a day to day basis that rise above and below my state of happiness and they sometimes bring tears to my eyes. We all can identify with the term "tears of joy or sadness." Even unhappy people can have tears of joy occasionally. I was introduced to the principle that "happiness is a byproduct of right living and not an end in itself." I have been living by that principle ever since, and you can believe me when I tell you that I reap more than my share of joy.
