Step

Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these Steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

Tradition

Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

Concept

The Conference shall observe the spirit of A.A. tradition, taking care that it never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds and reserve be its prudent financial principle; that it place none of its members in a position of unqualified authority over others; that it reach all important decisions by discussion, vote, and whenever possible, substantial unanimity; that its actions never be personal, punitive nor an incitement to public controversy; that it never perform acts of government; that, like the Society it serves, it will always remain democratic in thought and action.

ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS BRIDGING THE GAP TEMPORARY CONTACTS

We are taught to live life on life's terms. Bridging the gap between inside alcoholics and outside Alcoholics Anonymous during the Covid-19 pandemic challenges us to continue serving our fellows, even though familiar access has been affected. We are called on to set aside old ideas and search for creative, innovative methods to ensure alcoholics leaving treatment and corrections facilities have temporary contacts. How do we ensure newly released alcoholics are connected to a member of Alcoholics Anonymous? How do we provide them with someone who will take them to meetings, introduce them to members of the fellowship, and, most importantly, help them choose a home group and sponsor? We need to think outside the box, given many of our meetings are using internet technologies, such as Zoom. We need to solve the problem of meeting with and introducing newly discharged and released alcoholics to members of our fellowship while keeping safe social distancing in mind. Some of us rely on correspondence, video visits, or telephone. In whatever way you adjust your programs during these changing times, we must continue our vital Twelve Step service bringing newly released alcoholics into the middle of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Laura S.
Alternate Coordinator,
Bridging the Gap Workshop Weekend
altcoordinator@btgww.org

One of my favorite history items I came across is what I consider is the very first successful Bridging The Gap event (and the essence of what BTG is about) during the beginning of A.A. as follows :

The Earliest Bridging The Gap Work . . . began 24 days after the start of AA. This was when Bill W. & Dr. Bob had been Twelfth Stepping AA's Third Member ("The Man On The Bed") Bill Dotson. It was on that day (July 4th, 1935) in Akron's City Hospital that he (Bill Dotson) admitted he couldn't control his drinking and had to leave it up to God. Then they (Bill W. and Dr. Bob) made him get down on his knees at the side of the bed and pray and say that he would turn his life over to God. Before the visit was over, he suddenly turned to his wife Henrietta and said, "Go fetch my clothes, dear. We're going to get up and get out of here." He walked out of that hospital a free man, never to drink again. AA's Number One Group dates from that day. That same day (Fourth of July) they had plenty to celebrate. So they had a picnic. The Smiths, Bill Wilson, the Dotson's, and Eddie Riley (the first alcoholic they tried to help) were there.

About the BTGWW

For many decades AA members have been helping problem drinkers bridge the gap between Alcoholics Anonymous and hospitals, institutions, and corrections facilities. We arrange an AA contact to go with the clients and offenders to their first AA meetings when they arrive home.

BTGWW is an informal gathering of AA members from many entities, including groups, districts, conference areas, the General Service Office and intergroups/central offices.

The BTGWW newsletter, Annual Workshop Weekend, and digital Resource Library are other tools that help us learn from each other.

Our committee members invite you to join us and share your experiences.

THIS YEAR'S EVENT HAS BEEN RESCHEDULED

We look forward to seeing you in 2021
Same weekend—Same place
Holiday Inn Rock Island Hotel
226 17th Street, Rock Island, Illinois 61201

September 10–12, 2021

At that time in the early summer of 1935 there were no meetings like we have been enjoying for 85 years. Still, instead of leaving Bill Dotson to his own devices when it was time to be discharged, well someone decided to stick close by – even if it was just a picnic -- to help the newcomer get a good start in sobriety. That is about as close to today's Bridging The Gap as one can get.

Welcome to Charlotte, North Carolina

The women of the Carolinas are honored to host the 57th International Women's Conference. We are doing all that we can in the hopes you will enjoy our Southern hospitality and the museums, theatres, and restaurants within walking distance of the hotels. You will be in the heart of the Charlotte business community, yet close to residential areas.

IWC Mission Statement

The International Women's Conference is a bridge to a better understanding of the Alcoholics Anonymous philosophy and way of life because of our special needs in sobriety as women. We, as women members of Alcoholics Anonymous are survivors. We have found a way to obtain meaning, depth, and responsibility in our lives. This came about out of desire, decision, determination, and spiritual guidance. An elevated sense of belonging that is brought about by the special services and special needs provided by our Women's Conference is our goal.

Self-Supporting

This conference is self-supporting through the money paid for by registration fees, banquet tickets, and donations. No 7th Tradition AA funds are used to pay for the event. Conferences and conventions are special events and require money, as well as months of planning and preparation. Expenses include contracted costs for the use of meeting rooms, preparation of food and beverages (especially coffee,) printing of registration forms, audio/visual service, flyers, program schedules, postage, supplies and many other costs. Our financial goal is to break even. Our contractual commitments to the hotel require a guaranteed number of hotel rooms and banquet sales. To achieve this, we must meet our banquet and room night commitments.
