New Reps: None

P I: Uriel S. I Did not receive report.

H&I: Teri –A lot of panels are still available. Getting a lot of Juvenile places and nursing homes asking for panels to come in. We are in desperate need for volunteers, or we will have to turn these places away.

Office manager Report: Teri- Everything is going good except we had a huge order delivered that obviously was not ours, so we had to refuse it. We were not as busy as we thought it would be for the holidays.

12 Step/Phone Report: We are still filling in for a volunteer that has been sick for a while. We have experienced some callers that have been very rude, and we have had to weed them out.

GSR Report: Teri-A letter from the Delegate Elect regarding all the changes and discussions going on regarding literature. And the letter from GSO with some questions to get conversations going from lacking feedback over the past few years regarding literature. Links have been put in the chat.

Convention Report: There are still hotel rooms available if interested. The discount for registration ended on the 1st of the year. And the movie night fundraiser is on Jan. 13th tickets are $30 I have some at the office if you are interested. The movie will be Wonka. Convention is on April 18th-21st at Soboba Casino

We will be meeting at the Office next month and we will have it set up as a hybrid for those who wish to stay in the Zoom. Announcements Teri has put it out there if we, as the Central Office, can have a New Years Eve dance fundraiser. There isn't anything since the BMC will not have us there anymore.
